FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOUTWELLS LANDING TO HOST FIRST CANDIDATE FORUM

Lake Elmo, Minnesota – 9 September 2010:

On Monday 13 September 2010, candidates running for the district 56A seat in the Minnesota House Of Representatives are expected to appear together for the first time this election season. Starting at 7pm, Boutwells Landing will host this milestone debate in their Town Center. Jim Martin (independent of any political party) is expected to appear along side incumbent Julie Bunn (DFL). This is the first time that Jim Martin will appear in a public forum as a political candidate. Though an invitation has been extended, Kathy Lohmer (RPM) will not appear as she is awaiting the birth of her first grandchild.

“The community at large is encouraged to attend,” says Boutwells Landing's organizer, Ruth Jones. Boutwells Landing is located at 5600 Norwich Parkway in Oak Park Heights, MN, and their main office can be reached at (651) 275-5000.
